DESIGNER

Agustina Bottoni

Argentine-born, Milan-based designer Agustina Bottoni creates furniture, objects, and textiles that fuse emotional storytelling with refined craftsmanship. Trained at the Universidad de Buenos Aires and later at the Politecnico di Milano, Bottoni draws inspiration from cultural narratives, musical rhythm, and the poetry of materiality. Her work often incorporates graceful silhouettes, soft geometry, and a sensitive color palette, resulting in pieces that feel both contemporary and timeless. Bottoni’s practice values sustainability and artisanal collaboration, working with skilled craftspeople across Italy and beyond to translate her delicate designs into tangible form. Her collections frequently showcased at international design fairs , balance elegance and warmth, offering objects that invite sensory engagement and spark a personal connection between user and material.
