DESIGNER

Saerom Yoon

Korean designer Saerom Yoon is internationally recognized for his ethereal furniture and objects that explore transparency, color gradients, and optical effects. His signature "Gradient Series" utilizes layers of colored acrylic to create shifting hues and depth, drawing inspiration from natural landscapes and atmospheric conditions. Yoon's work combines high-level craftsmanship with conceptual artistry, positioning his pieces as both functional objects and optical experiences. By manipulating light, reflection, and material layering, he invites viewers to engage with furniture in new sensory ways, blurring the boundaries between art installation and daily-use object.
