MAEVE

MAEVE is a contemporary studio of collectible sculptural furniture and objects founded by Ana Medeiros in Porto, Portugal, in 2021. Working with artisans and jewellers across Portugal, the studio creates made-to-order pieces that unite refined forms, noble materials, and exceptional craftsmanship. Rooted in sustainability and the preservation of artisanal heritage, MAEVE reinterprets centuries-old techniques through a contemporary lens, creating timeless objects that balance sculptural purity with meticulous attention to detail. Trained in interior design, Ana Medeiros later completed a PhD in artistic studies at the University of Lisbon, where she researched the relationship between space, movement, and the body. This multidisciplinary background informs MAEVE's distinctive approach, where collectible furniture and objects embody a dialogue between craftsmanship, materiality, and contemporary living, bringing enduring character and cultural heritage into modern interiors.
