Chapter Studio

Chapter Studio is a multidisciplinary design practice founded by designer Shima Samaei, working across furniture, interiors, and architecture. Rooted in a belief that design is a form of storytelling, the studio creates projects that draw together cultural heritage, craftsmanship, and contemporary living through a refined and thoughtful design language. Inspired by both the functional clarity of modernism and the rich artistic traditions of the Middle East and North Africa, Samaei develops work that balances simplicity with narrative depth. Through furniture, objects, and spatial projects, Chapter Studio explores the relationship between memory, material, and form, creating pieces that reinterpret historical references within a contemporary context.
