Philippe Colette

Philippe Colette is a Belgian designer and founder of his eponymous studio, where craftsmanship lies at the heart of every creation. Specializing in bespoke indoor and outdoor tables and sculptural organic mirrors, he handcrafts each piece in his Belgian atelier, combining timeless aesthetics with enduring functionality. Inspired by the expressive qualities of natural materials, his work balances architectural clarity with organic forms, creating furniture that is both refined and deeply tactile. Guided by more than twenty-five years of experience, Colette embraces a made-to-measure approach, transforming each commission into a unique work shaped by precision, authenticity, and the human touch. Through handcrafted textures, sculpted forms, and thoughtful detailing, his practice celebrates the enduring dialogue between craftsmanship, materiality, and contemporary living.
