DESIGNER

Piotr Dąbrowa

Piotr Dabrowa (b. 1990) is a Polish multidisciplinary designer known for collectible lighting and furniture that unite sculptural expression with refined functionality. His work explores materiality, form, and spatial presence, balancing contemporary aesthetics with enduring design principles. Each piece is conceived to enrich its surroundings, bringing clarity, atmosphere, and a quiet sense of beauty to interior spaces. After beginning his career in graphic design in 2011, Dabrowa transitioned into product and furniture design, founding STUDIO-DABROWA in 2020. The studio creates unique, collectible works through close collaborations with European artisans, manufacturers, and galleries. Meticulous craftsmanship and material exploration remain central to the practice, with every object carefully considered for both its functional and emotional resonance. Guided by curiosity and a sensitivity to process, Dabrowa creates lighting, furniture, and sculptural works that transform everyday environments into spaces of subtle wonder. His practice is at once poetic and pragmatic, grounded in precision while remaining open to the unexpected possibilities of form and material.
