Bicci De Medici

Bicci de' Medici is a Belgian design atelier dedicated to creating bespoke furniture and objects that celebrate the beauty of natural materials and exceptional craftsmanship. Working with stone, wood, porcelain, organic textiles, and other carefully selected materials, the studio produces one-of-a-kind pieces distinguished by their quiet elegance, tactile richness, and enduring character. Guided by a philosophy of refinement and restraint, Bicci de' Medici collaborates closely with collectors, interior architects, and design professionals to create highly personalized works. Blending contemporary sensibilities with timeless craftsmanship, the atelier develops pieces that evoke warmth, serenity, and a deep connection to material and place.
