Santa & Cole

Santa & Cole is an independent design editor rooted in Barcelona and active across more than 85 countries. Founded in 1985, the company has developed a distinctive approach to material culture through a carefully curated catalogue of lighting, furniture, art, and musical instruments. Its philosophy is grounded in quality, longevity, and the belief that thoughtfully designed objects can enrich everyday life and deepen our relationship with our surroundings. The catalogue brings together nearly ninety years of design history, united by a sensitivity to material, craftsmanship, and the transformative power of light. Since 2021, Santa & Cole has expanded its vision to include original artworks, certified editions, and handcrafted musical instruments under Milagro Luthiers. For the company, editing is an act of authorship through discernment—selecting, preserving, and bringing forward works of lasting relevance. Each piece is conceived as a lifelong companion, with materials, dimensions, and finishes thoughtfully adapted to the needs of each project.
