Cal Summers

Cal Summers is a British designer and maker whose practice centers on bespoke furniture and objects distinguished by their sculptural forms, material sensitivity, and exceptional craftsmanship. Raised in the Kent countryside within a creative family, he developed an early appreciation for visual composition, vernacular architecture, and the character of handmade objects. A graduate of the University of Brighton in 3D Design and Craft, Summers combines traditional woodworking techniques with contemporary fabrication methods to create refined, highly detailed pieces. Since establishing his studio, he has developed a body of work that balances functionality with artistic expression, earning recognition from leading interior designers, architects, and international galleries.
