DESIGNER

Frederik Bogaerts

Frederik Bogaerts is a Belgian designer based in Antwerp whose practice explores the relationship between sculptural form, materiality, and contemporary craftsmanship. Working across collectible furniture and lighting, he creates refined pieces distinguished by clean geometries, balanced proportions, and a thoughtful use of wood and metal. Through a restrained design language, Bogaerts reinterprets traditional craftsmanship with a contemporary sensibility. Guided by a commitment to precision and material integrity, Bogaerts develops bespoke and limited-edition works that celebrate natural finishes, meticulous joinery, and timeless design. Combining sculptural clarity with tactile warmth, his creations embody the enduring dialogue between craftsmanship, functionality, and contemporary living.
