Three One Four Studio

THREE ONE FOUR Studio was founded through the dynamic collaboration of Alexander Webb, an innovative furniture and product designer, and Neil Walker, a master of precision manufacturing and founder of Penta Pattern & Model. United by a shared passion for redefining the dialogue between traditional craftsmanship and cutting-edge production, the duo established a practice where artistry and technical mastery converge seamlessly. Every creation from THREE ONE FOUR Studio is conceived as a singular expression of design integrity—meticulously handmade, inherently unique, and presented as a signed Artist's Edition. While each work stands as a collectible in its own right, the studio also embraces bespoke commissions, tailoring its visionary designs to reflect the individuality of each client. At its core, THREE ONE FOUR Studio embodies a philosophy of pushing boundaries—where innovation, materiality, and craftsmanship come together to reimagine the future of contemporary furniture and object design.
