Carlos Aucejo

Carlos Aucejo is a Spanish designer whose work explores the intersection of colour, form, and functionality through furniture and lighting. Based in Madrid, he creates pieces distinguished by their sculptural character, bold geometries, and playful visual language, drawing inspiration from both modernist design and contemporary culture. Combining craftsmanship with a spirit of experimentation, Aucejo develops objects that balance expressive forms with everyday usability. Through careful attention to materiality, colour, and proportion, his work brings a sense of energy and personality to interior spaces while maintaining a refined and contemporary aesthetic.
