DESIGNER

Angel Mombiedro

Born in Madrid in 1988, architect and designer Ángel Mombiedro received his education in Madrid, Hamburg, and São Paulo and is now based in New York City. Mombiedro's work, spanning interiors, furniture, and conceptual design, is characterized by a layering of lived references and cross-cultural influences. His pieces are celebrated for their sculptural clarity, emotional resonance, and ability to inhabit space as palpable, energetic presences. Recognized among Dwell Magazine's "World Best Emergent Designers 2019/20," Mombiedro remains a dynamic voice reimagining the relationship between form, light, and memory in contemporary design.
