DESIGNER

Stefan Leo

Atelier Stefan Leo is renowned for exceptional interior objects shaped by craftsmanship, material richness, and timeless design. Working across tables, sideboards, and lighting, the atelier combines diverse techniques, rare artisanal skills, and an expansive material palette to create works of distinctive character. Led by designers Stefan Leo and Hans-J. Pahl, the practice balances enduring forms with an openness to experimentation. Traditional craftsmanship is reinterpreted through inventive processes, allowing material, function, and form to evolve in dialogue. Close collaboration with a dedicated team of craftsmen and craftswomen remains central to the atelier's approach, ensuring meticulous attention to every detail. Presented in galleries worldwide and developed through bespoke commissions, each piece reflects a commitment to precision, creativity, and individuality. Through the meeting of artisanal knowledge and contemporary expression, Atelier Stefan Leo creates objects that transcend function, celebrating the lasting value of thoughtfully made design.
