Corine Vanvoorbergen

Belgian artist and designer Corine Vanvoorbergen is celebrated for her poetic, hand-crafted furniture and objects that merge material experimentation with feminine sensibility. Working primarily with ceramics, metal, and wood, Vanvoorbergen's pieces embody a sculptural and tactile quality, often blurring boundaries between art and functional design. Her practice engages with organic forms and textures, focusing on intimate scale and sensory experience. Vanvoorbergen's work is exhibited internationally, prized for its emotional depth and artisanal rigor.
