DESIGNER

Pietro Franceschini

Operating between Florence and New York, architect-designer Pietro Franceschini directs PF|Studio, founded in 2020 to pursue interiors and collectible furniture with a poised, sculptural clarity. Educated in Italy, Portugal, and the United States, he honed his approach through collaborations with studios across Europe and the U.S. before consolidating an independent practice. Franceschini's editions balance mass and delicacy—stone, metal, and lacquer shaped into forms that are at once minimal and sensuous—while his interiors extend that language at architectural scale. Gallery presentations position the work within a contemporary European lineage attentive to material presence and narrative space.
