Masquespacio

Masquespacio, founded in 2010 by Ana Milena Hernández Palacios and Christophe Penasse, is an internationally acclaimed design studio recognised for challenging conventions and creating distinctive, emotionally resonant experiences. Working across interiors, products, branding, and visual identity, the studio combines conceptual thinking with strategic insight, transforming functional projects into memorable cultural expressions. Through international collaborations and cross-disciplinary practice, Masquespacio has developed a bold and recognisable visual language. Hernández Palacios, founder and creative director, approaches design through intuition, and meticulous attention to detail, while Penasse, co-founder and managing director, brings a strategic and marketing perspective to each project. Their work has received international recognition, including Young Talent of the Year by ELLE Decoration International and Interior Designers of the Year by The New York Times T Magazine Spain. Together, they create immersive environments and objects where design, identity, and emotion converge.
