DESIGNER

Masquespacio

Founded in 2010 by Ana Milena Hernández Palacios and Christophe Penasse, Masquespacio is an internationally acclaimed design studio driven by a desire to challenge conventions and create meaningful, emotionally resonant experiences. Based on an innovative, concept-led approach, the studio works across interiors, products, branding, and visual identity, developing projects that are both distinctive and strategically grounded. Through collaborations spanning multiple countries and cultures, Masquespacio has cultivated a bold and recognizable language that consistently pushes the boundaries of contemporary design. The studio's work has been Decoration International (2020) and Interior Designers of the Year by The New York Times T Magazine Spain (2019), alongside honors from Architectural Digest and Hospitality Design. Ana Milena Hernández, founder and creative director, approaches design as a lifestyle, marked by meticulous attention to detail and a commitment to originality. Christophe Penasse, co-founder and managing director, brings a strategic and marketing-driven perspective, shaping strong brand narratives. Together, they create immersive environments and objects that transform brands into enduring cultural experiences.
