Carine Boxy

Residing in the Flemish heartland of Belgium, textile artist Carine Boxy transforms natural sheepskin into immersive interior landscapes. Since founding sheepsrugskins in 2009, Boxy has explored the tactile relationship between materials, space, and livelihood, draping her environments in raw softness. Her design ethos is wild and spontaneous, shaped by rural childhood memories and a persistent affinity for the untamed. Boxy's studio, housed in a historic home renovated by Maarten Van Severen, exemplifies her fusion of authenticity, comfort, and contemporary flair.
