Kristina Dam Studio

Educated at the Royal Academy of Art and Architecture, Kristina Dam founded her eponymous studio in 2012, establishing a practice where art and design converge. Kristina Dam Studio is recognised for its sculptural minimalism, expressed through furniture, objects, and accessories that unite architectural clarity with a refined sensitivity to material and form. Clean lines, monochromatic compositions, and noble materials are distilled into works of quiet yet commanding presence. Rooted in architecture and informed by the expressive possibilities of art, Dam’s practice explores structure, rhythm, proportion, and tactility. Arches and geometric forms recur as understated motifs, while material honesty lends each work a sense of permanence beyond trend and function. Through this disciplined yet poetic approach, Kristina Dam Studio has established a distinctive voice in contemporary Danish design, creating objects that exist between utility and sculpture—considered, enduring, and evocative.
