DESIGNER

Marc Dibeh

Marc Dibeh is a Beirut-based designer whose work articulates a nuanced narrative of place, culture, and imagination through interiors and collectible design. His practice is grounded in storytelling, guided by a philosophy that seeks to distill objects and spaces to their most timeless and essential expressions. Rooted in sharp conceptual thinking and an understated sense of wit, Dibeh's universe remains connected to the tangible world while possessing the rare ability to momentarily transport the viewer beyond it. Since establishing his practice in 2009, Dibeh has been commissioned by leading galleries worldwide. His work has been presented by institutions such as Galerie

2013, following the presentation of his Wires series with Artfactum Gallery, The Wall Street Journal named him one of the five breakout stars of Design Miami, Miami edition. He was subsequently recognized by Artsy as one of the five up-and-coming designers at Design Miami/Basel in 2015. His accolades include the Generation Orient Prize in 2016 and the Rising Talents Award from Maison&Objet Paris in 2018. More recently, Dibeh was awarded AD Middle East Interior Design of the Year in 2021 and, in 2022, was listed among AD Middle East's 50 Best Designers and the ID50 Top Designers, affirming his position within the contemporary international design landscape.
