DESIGNER

Cara Davide

Cara Davide is a multi-disciplinary designer known for her elegant, poetic approach to furniture and spatial design. Working with natural materials such as wood, leather, and stone, her creations often feature soft curves, warm palettes, and tactile textures. Davide's practice explores the dialogue between comfort, craftsmanship, and sculptural form, producing objects that feel intimate yet refined. Her work is rooted in a human-centered design philosophy, emphasizing emotional connection and sensory experience. Cara Davide collaborates closely with artisans, allowing detailed manual processes to shape each piece's unique character, making her a distinctive voice in contemporary European design.
