Andy Kerstens

Andy Kerstens is an Antwerp-based interior architect and designer whose multidisciplinary studio, founded in 2015, shapes interiors, furniture, and objects defined by architectural clarity, craftsmanship, and timeless restraint. With a language rooted in refined proportion, muted palettes, and material richness, his work seeks a serene balance between precision and atmosphere. At once understated and detailed, Kerstens' practice unites interiors, collectible objects, and bespoke commissions into a cohesive architectural whole. Each project reflects a pursuit of harmony—where light, space, and tactile natural materials converge into a contemporary, monochrome elegance marked by understated luxury.
