DESIGNER

Delvis Studio

Delvis Studio is an emerging contemporary design atelier focused on furniture and objects that explore the dialogue between materiality and form. The studios work is marked by graceful curves, balanced proportions, and a tactile palette involving wood, metal, and ceramics. Delvis aims to create pieces that foster intimate connections through sensory and spatial experiences. Committed to artisanal techniques and limited runs, Delvis Studio blends innovation and tradition to produce collectible works. Their portfolio appeals to collectors and designers interested in refined, poetic design expressions.
