DESIGNER

Josefina Munoz

Josefina Muñoz is an Argentine designer and artist whose objects and furniture explore texture, form, and detail, reflecting a life shaped across different horizons. She studied Product Design at ESAD in Barcelona and earned a master's in Design for Luxury & Craftsmanship at ECAL in Lausanne. After completing her studies, she founded her own studio, creating collectible pieces exhibited in galleries and fairs worldwide. Her work has received the Art & Design Indosuez Award from the Swiss Arts and Crafts Association and was shortlisted for the Swiss Design Awards in the Product & Object category. Now based in the Loire Valley, France, she continues to craft her own pieces and collaborates with artisans to bring her vision to life.
