Oeuffice

Oeuffice, founded in 2011 by Nicolas Bellavance-Lecompte and Jakub Zak, is a design research studio shaped by their experiences between Canada, Berlin, and Milan. Working at the intersection of architecture, furniture, and sculpture, the duo creates innovative limited-edition objects that bring conceptual thinking into the domestic realm. Their practice explores form, proportion, and material through a rigorous yet intuitive process, treating each piece as a thoughtful proposition rather than a purely functional object. Oeuffice's work reflects a contemporary sense of utopia, where architectural ideas are distilled into intimate, collectible forms. Defined by clarity, restraint, and subtle experimentation, each object invites a more reflective relationship with space and everyday life. Produced exclusively in limited editions, the studio's pieces emphasize precision, quality, and individuality. Exhibited internationally and represented by leading galleries, Oeuffice continues to blur the boundaries between furniture, sculpture, and architectural fragment, creating works that quietly challenge conventional ideas of how objects inhabit and shape contemporary interiors.
