Nelson de Araújo

Nelson de Araújo Design is a Portuguese furniture label founded by designer Nelson de Araújo, dedicated to creating consciously crafted pieces that balance elegance, comfort, and functionality. Rooted in a philosophy of mindful living, the brand explores a refined design language where simplicity and subtle playfulness coexist with purpose. Designed and handcrafted in Portugal, each piece is produced in close collaboration with skilled local artisans, ensuring a high level of craftsmanship and attention to detail. Sustainability is central to the studio's approach, with an emphasis on responsible material sourcing and thoughtful, small-scale production. Rather than following trends, Nelson de Araújo Design focuses on creating timeless furniture intended to age gracefully and endure over time.
