Colé Italia

Colé Italia is an Italian design studio rooted in the marble-working tradition of Carrara, where centuries of craftsmanship meet contemporary design. Specializing in sculptural furniture, lighting, and objects, the studio transforms natural stone into expressive pieces distinguished by fluid forms, refined detailing, and a strong material presence. Drawing on the unique character of marble, Colé Italia balances artisanal expertise with a contemporary design language, revealing the beauty, texture, and individuality of each stone. Their work celebrates the dialogue between tradition and innovation, creating collectible pieces that embody both timeless elegance and sculptural boldness.
