Bicci De Medici

Belgium’s Bicci de Medici produces exclusive, handcrafted furniture and objects shaped by emotion and rooted in natural materials, stone, wood, loam, organic fabrics, and porcelain. Guided by a refined sense of restraint, the atelier delivers one of a kind pieces for discerning clients through collaborations with select dealers and interior architects.

Their work merges serenity with distinction, blending new and old to create atmospheres that are subtle yet memorable. Each commission is approached with precision, offering tailored solutions that speak to both the client’s individuality and the enduring language of craftsmanship.
