DESIGNER

Santa & Cole

Santa & Cole is an independent, globally active editor of design products, rooted in Barcelona and distributed across more than 85 countries. Since its founding in 1985, the company has cultivated a distinctive approach to material culture through a carefully curated catalogue encompassing lighting and furniture, and more recently, works of art and musical instruments. Guided by a commitment to quality and longevity, Santa & Cole creates and edits objects that enrich everyday life and foster a harmonious relationship with our environment—whether in domestic, public, or professional spaces. Well-being lies at the heart of this philosophy, supported by a pieces conceived in diverse contexts yet united by a shared sensitivity to materials and a profound understanding of light. In 2021, the scope expanded to include original artworks and certified editions, alongside handcrafted musical instruments presented under the Milagro Luthiers name, conceived as an ode to sound and human connection. Editing, for Santa & Cole, is an act of authorship through choice: selecting, protecting, and bringing to light works of lasting relevance. Each product is envisioned as a lifelong companion and may be thoughtfully adapted in materials, dimensions, or finishes to meet the specific needs of each project.
