DESIGNER

Jesse Visser

Dutch designer Jesse Visser is known for his sculptural, innovative approach to lighting and furniture. Educated at the Utrecht School of the Arts, Visser's practice combines industrial precision with tactile experimentation, producing works that defy easy categorization. Each design undergoes a process of meticulous refinement, where technological advancements meet an acute sensitivity for texture and silhouette. Visser's collaborations with international brands and galleries have yielded pieces recognized for their distinctive profiles, refined engineering, and capacity to create ambiance. His philosophy treats design as a living dialogue between user, object, and environment.
