Selma Lazrak

Selma Lazrak is a Moroccan artist and designer whose work reflects the warmth of Moroccan craft expressed through contemporary forms. Having lived for many years in France, her practice carries a cosmopolitan sensitivity while remaining deeply rooted in the traditions and material culture of Morocco. Collaborating closely with skilled artisans, Lazrak creates furniture and objects in wood, metal, and woven materials, each piece shaped by a dialogue between handcraft and modern design. Her collections reveal a refined minimalism layered with cultural resonance, imbuing each object with a sense of place, memory, and narrative. By bridging heritage with contemporary sensibilities, Selma Lazrak's work finds its place in both traditional and modern contexts, offering objects that are timeless in character and rich in meaning.
