Egg Designs

South African studio Egg Designs, run by Greg and Roche Dry, makes collectible furniture that radiates sensual, handmade warmth. With production spanning South Africa and Portugal, their work sustains a dialogue between bespoke tradition and global circulation. Each object, often organically shaped and richly surfaced, feels lovingly crafted and visually compelling. Their design approach privileges the handmade gesture, edges softly modulated, forms given breathing room, and materials allowed their full voice. The resulting pieces travel beyond mere function, rooting themselves in craft, narrative, and the embodiment of embodied, global making.
