DESIGNER

Daniel Poole

British designer Daniel Poole produces lighting and furniture characterized by streamlined, elegant forms and meticulous quality. His work frequently merges mid-century modern inspiration with contemporary manufacturing, creating pieces that are both familiar and fresh. Poole's use of metalwork and natural finishes imparts warmth and structural clarity to his designs. Poole engages in both mass market and limited edition projects, balancing commercial viability with design personality. His work is recognized for its timelessness and understated luxury, making him a respected figure in the UK design scene.
