DESIGNER

Karolina Maszkiewicz

Polish designer Karolina Maszkiewicz celebrates material purity through highly refined, pared-back forms. Educated in product design in Poland, she works across furniture, lighting, and small objects that reflect a deep engagement with texture, proportion, and the subtleties of light and shadow. Her design language rejects superfluous ornamentation in favor of essential shapes that quietly transform their surroundings. Maszkiewicz's works inhabit that rare space where modernist discipline and a poetic sensibility coexist, resulting in objects that feel harmoniously inevitable yet emotionally resonant.
