DESIGNER

Ohla Studio

Founded in 2017 by Giulia Zink and Mat Trumbull, OHLA STUDIO is a multidisciplinary design atelier whose practice spans art direction, interiors, and landscape. Working with visionary developers, retailers, and bespoke ventures, the studio approaches each commission with a distinct sensitivity to context, material, and atmosphere, creating spaces of enduring character and contemporary resonance. At the core of OHLA STUDIO's practice is a dialogue with artisans and local communities, drawing upon centuries-old traditions, overlooked spaces, and enduring forms of knowledge. Through this exchange, heritage is reinterpreted with clarity and restraint, transforming craft and memory into contemporary expressions. Each work becomes a poetic encounter between past and present—where material, place, and cultural legacy converge to create environments that are intimate, evocative, and profoundly rooted in their origins.
