DESIGNER

Ohla Studio

Founded in 2017 by Giulia Zink and Mat Trumbull, OHLA STUDIO is a multidisciplinary design atelier renowned for its singular approach to art direction, interior, and landscape design. The studio collaborates with a diverse spectrum of clients—from visionary real estate developers and innovative retailers to bespoke boutique ventures—bringing a distinctive sensibility to every project. At the heart of OHLA STUDIO's practice lies a profound dialogue with artisans and local communities whose traditions span centuries. Each collaboration is an exploration of craft, heritage, and place, resulting in works that are at once intimate, authentic, and strikingly original. Their designs are overlooked spaces, forgotten knowledge, and time-honored techniques, yet rendered with a contemporary clarity that resonates in the present. OHLA STUDIO's oeuvre manifests age-old visions through the lens of modern possibility, translating history into form, material, and atmosphere. Every project becomes a poetic synthesis of memory and innovation, echoing both the familiar and the new. In this delicate balance, OHLA STUDIO creates environments that are not only visually compelling but profoundly rooted in the cultural and material legacies from which they emerge.
