Atelier Blouberg

Atelier Blouberg is the furniture design practice of Belgian designer and maker Ruben Van Lerberghe, whose work is rooted in a deep appreciation for craftsmanship, material honesty, and timeless design. Based between Marseille and Antwerp, the studio creates handcrafted furniture distinguished by its sculptural simplicity, refined detailing, and careful balance between functionality and aesthetic expression. Working primarily with wood, Atelier Blouberg embraces a process-driven approach in which traditional cabinetmaking techniques meet contemporary forms. Each piece is conceived with a strong sensitivity to proportion, texture, and durability, resulting in furniture that feels both understated and enduring. Through a commitment to meticulous craftsmanship and thoughtful design, the studio creates objects that celebrate the beauty of natural materials and the quiet elegance of everyday use.
