DESIGNER

Verena Brausch

German designer Verena Brausch creates furniture and interior objects distinguished by sculptural purity and a quiet, restrained elegance. Working with wood, metal, and marble, she explores the interplay of proportion, surface, and tactility, seeking to engage both the eye and the hand. Her works often present a refined minimalism that, upon closer encounter, reveals intricate subtleties and layers of craftsmanship. Brausch’s practice is deeply rooted in collaboration with master artisans, ensuring that every detail upholds both precision and longevity. She is drawn to the timeless qualities of natural materials and to forms that transcend trend, resulting in objects that move fluidly between functionality and art. Her creations integrate seamlessly into diverse environments while retaining their own strong sculptural presence. Balancing rigor with sensitivity, Brausch’s work reflects a commitment to beauty, permanence, and the enduring dialogue between material and form.
