DESIGNER

Christian Friedl

Christian Friedl is an Austrian designer based in Graz whose work spans furniture, lighting, and product design. Guided by a deep appreciation for materiality and craftsmanship, he creates pieces that balance functional clarity with a refined sculptural presence, often exploring the relationship between geometry, texture, and form. Working with materials such as wood, metal, glass, and concrete, Friedl develops designs distinguished by their understated elegance and meticulous attention to detail. Through close collaborations with local artisans and manufacturers, he combines contemporary production methods with traditional craftsmanship, creating objects that are both timeless and thoughtfully made.
