Alice Lahana Studio

Alice Lahana is a Paris-based designer whose multidisciplinary practice bridges sculpture and functional design. Each piece is handmade in her studio in eastern Paris, produced in limited editions that emphasize materiality and craftsmanship. A graduate of the Beaux-Arts in Paris, Lahana's creative trajectory shifted during an extended stay in Brazil, where she discovered carpentry and began to merge fine art sensibilities with design. Since founding her studio, she has cultivated an eclectic body of work that evolves through experimentation and dialogue between wood, ceramics, and glass.
