sashaxsasha

sashaxsasha is a Paris-based design studio founded in 2019 by Alexandra Gineva and Alexander Dobrovskiy, a creative duo with backgrounds in architecture. Originally from Moscow, both studied and practiced architecture before channeling their visual discipline into object and collectible design. The studio's work draws on architectural thinking and a rich visual language to produce furniture, seating, lighting, and sculptural pieces that balance playful forms with a strong material presence. Their designs often reference memory, space, and tactile experience, resulting in objects that feel both grounded and expressive.
