

MARK YOUR CALENDAR | JAN 24, 2022 | 📅

February's can't-miss design events

By Caroline Bourque

French Design 100 Festival

Online | Through February 20

This monthlong digital event honors the recipients of the French Design 100 award, which recognizes 100 designers for projects in furniture and decoration, and for spaces such as hotels, shops and restaurants that have increased the influence of French design in the world. Videos of the award-winning designers will be unveiled on social media through February 20th, as each answers a question posed by the festival's guest of honor, Philippe Starck: "What effort would you envision to open up to the world?" For more info, click here.

Transatlántico

Mexico City | February 8–12

Coinciding with the citywide Zona Maco art and design fair, Galerie Philia presents an exhibition of sculptural design from the next generation of Latin American designers—a cohort that hails from Mexico, Argentina, Colombia, Peru, Puerto Rico, Venezuela and the Dominican Republic. Highlights include striking chairs made from native woods by designer Cristián Mohaded, geometric furniture and decorative objects by Breuer Estudio, and a new collection of floor and table lamps made from pure steel and brass by designer Manu Bañó. For more info, click here.