

Reinventing Heritage: Revolutionizing the Future Through Nostalgia

The ACIIDD team shares how nostalgia and culture have inspired designers and brands to shape the aesthetics of tomorrow.

JULY 11, 2022 | By DENISE AYADO OF ACIIDD

Prompted by custom and pushed forward by innovation and new ideas, Nostalgic Futures tap into our consciousness on what the aesthetics of tomorrow will be. This movement celebrates the myriad of influences that continue to shape our legacy. While previous iterations of heritage reinterpretations draw inspiration from classical designs, ACHIID delves deeper into areas of craftsmanship, cultural collaborations, pop culture, and digital translations.

Crafting the Cosmos

Crafting the Cosmos forges the union between reverence towards divinity and the psyche combined with the appreciation for traditional craftsmanship. The Temenos Project by StudioPepe and Galerie Philia is a synergistic installation that takes in the form of ancient monuments. Along with it is StudioPepe's collection based on the four elements as well as the nine archetypal gods and goddesses of Egyptian culture.

Left: Geb Black Wood Throne; Middle: Isis Monolithic Chair;
Right: Seth and Sekhmet Vases by StudioPepe