

GALERIE PHILIA – DESACRALISED

On the occasion of Milan Design Week 2023, Galerie Philia presents 'Desacralised', an offsite exhibition featuring more than twenty international designers exploring the concept of desacralization. 'Desacralised' is the first major exhibition to be held in San Vittore e 40 Martiri, a deconsecrated church in the center of Milan originally built in the 11th century. Drawing from objects that have lost their sacred value and have become purely functional, all the works created for this exhibition are completely white. Participating designers include Rick Owens, Arno Declercq, Henry Wilson, Pierre de Valck, Andrés Monnier, Abid Javid, and Jules Lobgeois.
